Home House

GRAND, ECCENTRIC, ICONIC.

Home House

*London's most magnificent private members' club,
fusing 18th century splendour with 21st century style.*

Established in the 18th Century, Home House was designed by George III's architect, James Wyatt, who was commissioned to build a sophisticated palace purely for enjoyment and entertainment, as No 20 Portman Square.

Today, Home House hosts a collection of characters and individuals spread across three exquisite Georgian townhouses, offering an exceptional range of facilities including restaurants, bars, The Vaults, an intimate garden, elegant bedrooms, a boardroom, a gym and a thriving calendar of exclusive member's events.

Home House

A Flamboyant History

Robert Adam, one of the most celebrated architects of his day, was appointed in 1775 to complete the building. Home House is acknowledged as Robert Adam's finest surviving London town house, with one of the most breath-taking imperial staircases in European architecture.

The venue of the most illustrious parties of the 18th century high society, the House continues to be a shrine to hedonism today through its legendary member's parties.

British Excellence

Exquisite British dining is at the heart of Home House. Our talented team of chefs peruse the country for the best possible ingredients, be it for breakfast, lunch, or dinner. Savour the delights of our brasserie-style menu with its great British classics and innovative twists.

Enjoy afternoon tea in the splendour of The Drawing Rooms, or a selection of small plates to share in one of our elegant lounges.

A truly glamorous backdrop for any type of celebration, we can cater for private events of all kinds, from celebratory wedding feasts to corporate buffets.

Exquisite Spirits

A classic Martini may be best enjoyed in the dazzling House 21, recently refurbished into a masterpiece by the acclaimed Russell Sage Studio.

Your day round playground, House 21 is a space for colourful characters and flamboyant misfits to feel perfectly at home.

The Bison Bar is an all-day hub for the House, complete with regularly changing art to admire. In the summer months enjoy al fresco drinks in our exclusive garden.

Champagne is always the order of the day in The Drawing Rooms, and why not ask one of our expert bartenders for a delicious cocktail.

A Shrine to Hedonism

True to the infamous legacy of its past, Home House is a haven for social activity.

Members can enjoy access to our schedule of ever-changing members' events, bringing together the best of arts, culture, food and drink. Get together with friends over a Cocktail Masterclass, channel your creativity in our Home Made series, or don a costume for one of our spectacular themed parties.

For late night revelry, The Vaults is our own exclusive nightclub, featuring two karaoke dens and an intimate bar.

Discover your best self in The Gym, working with our expert personal trainers and state of the art equipment, or sampling new classes before relaxing in The Spa.

Enchanting Opulence

Be transported to a different time and place. Each of the 23 luxurious bedrooms and suites has a unique story to tell, with features that include hand-painted silk wallpaper and shimmering gold ceilings.

The deep red marble in Lady Islington's bathroom comes from the same stone as that used in the star inlay in the floor in the centre of the dome in St. Paul's Cathedral, London. A bath made for His Highness Say Aji Rao III, Maharajah Gaekwad of Baroda (1863-1939) is now in the Duke of Atholl's suite on the third floor.

Our Club and Feature Rooms are the perfect place to rest your head after a busy day of meetings in the city, or look to one of our spacious suites for the ultimate luxury experience.
